

A perfect mix

Much like the ideal martini, the perfect evening should be a flavorful experience – a sensory delight that looks and tastes wonderful. Such an evening requires dynamic martini glasses, starlit nights and music to inspire your cocktail shaker (pun intended.)

May we present to you the Martini and Cigars Under the Stars Gala ...

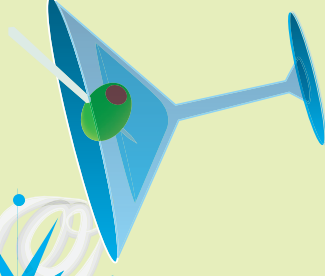

Your evening begins with a VIP red carpet welcoming you to a sea of fans and paparazzi to applaud your entrance. Plush lounges, eight-foot-tall martini glasses, and on-site cigar rolling will appeal to your senses and arouse your curiosity as the smooth sounds of jazz and interactive entertainment from roaming performers stimulate your imagination. Local and national celebrities will slip out of a parade of exotic cars and into dry martinis join you in the festivities.

Together, the martinis and the entertainment form a spicy, sharp, savory, and always unique flavor experience. These two ingredients mingle very well, and meet at a balance point to create the perfect buzz for an exciting evening. Olive or sugar rimmed, shaken or stirred, join us for an evening of 100-proof entertainment at the Martini and Cigars Under the Stars Gala.

"The Perfect Martini, as an idea, has infinite possibilities. For me, the Dry Martini remains an American symbol of elusive perfection... The dedicated Martini drinker views this deceptively simple cocktail as a true, if fleeting, salvation..."

~ The Martini, author Barnaby Conrad III

Martinis & Cigars

Under the Stars Gala

A Black Tie Event
Benefiting
YMCA of Greater Pittsburgh
&
Everychild Inc.

7 p.m. Cocktails
8 p.m. Entertainment
Friday, July 7, 2006

Carnegie Science Center

Committee Members

Curtis Aiken - Co-Honorary Chairman

Dr. Stanley Marks - Co-Honorary Chairman

Susan Davis

Mark DeIntinis

Rex Hough

Eric Mann

Rosemary Mendel

Jennifer Moreau

Susan Mussman, Esquire

Steve Tello

Eric Williams

A Black Tie Event

Benefiting

YMCA of Greater Pittsburgh

&

Everychild Inc.

7 p.m. Cocktails

8 p.m. Entertainment

Friday, July 7, 2006

Carnegie Science Center

Sponsors

• All Star Limousine

• City of Pittsburgh

• FOX Sports

• Highmark

• Marriott Pittsburgh City Center

• National City

• Parkhurst Dining Services

• Three Olives

• Zino Platinum

Produced by:

forte
PRODUCTIONS AND SERVICES, LLC